

Competitor Appreciation

Get your 2016 Cynosport experience off to a sweet start with authentic Navajo Indian Fry Bread!

To Thank You for your support of USDAA throughout the year, please enjoy a Complimentary sample of authentic Navajo Indian Fry Bread from 3 to 6 p.m. during Check-in on Tuesday, November 8th!

B & J Concessions is providing all the sweet fixings – honey, powdered sugar or cinnamon sugar – to top your bread.

Similar to an unsweetened funnel cake, but thicker, softer and full of air pockets, fry bread is considered by some as a symbol of Native American pride and unity. Navajo Fry Bread originated over 150 years ago as the tribe made a 300-mile trek when they relocated to New Mexico and northern Arizona - It is a symbol of their survival.

Besides a sweet dessert, Navajo Fry Bread can also be topped with a variety of meats, veggies and sauces for lunch and dinner, too. Navajo Tacos are a local favorite during state and county fairs, Indian Markets and powwows. Be sure to stop back by B & J Concessions during Cynosport and try all the different ways to enjoy authentic Navajo Indian Fry Bread.

No matter how you top it, USDAA thanks you for your time, dedication and support for the past 29 years!
